When you visit the practice, it is very important that you feel safe in telling your physician personal information that may be required to fully diagnose or treat a problem. The practice has strict policies and procedures to protect the confidentiality of the information that you have entrusted to us. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) rules require that the practice provide all of our patients with the attached Notice of Privacy Practices on their first visit. The notice describes how the medical information we receive from you may be used or disclosed by the practice and your rights related to your access to this information. Please sign below that we have provided you with a copy of our notice to review. If you have any questions about our Privacy Practices, please feel free to contact our Privacy Officer. Thank you for your cooperation.

Please tell us how to contact you to discuss your medical care
